

Name _____

Wings Across Continents: The Marvel of Butterfly Migration

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is migration?
  - A) The seasonal movement of animals between breeding and overwintering sites
  - B) The process of mating and laying eggs
  - C) The transformation of caterpillars into butterflies
  - D) The gathering of butterflies in dense clusters

2. Which butterfly species is known for its long-distance migration?
  - A) Cabbage White Butterfly
  - B) Monarch Butterfly
  - C) Black Swallowtail Butterfly
  - D) Eastern Tiger Swallowtail Butterfly

3. What environmental cues may help guide butterflies along their migratory routes?
  - A) Soil moisture, humidity, and air pressure
  - B) Rainfall, thunderstorms, and fog
  - C) Moon phases, cloud cover, and wind direction
  - D) Temperature, daylight, and geomagnetic fields

4. What triggers the southward migration of monarch butterflies in North America?
  - A) Heavy rainfall and flooding
  - B) Increasing temperatures and daylight hours
  - C) Decreasing temperatures and daylight hours
  - D) Strong winds and thunderstorms

5. Where do monarch butterflies overwinter during their migration?
  - A) Canada
  - B) Central Mexico
  - C) Europe
  - D) South America

