Name _____

Unveiling Butterfly Myths: Separating Fact from Fiction

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Discuss one common myth about butterflies and explain why it is not accurate, providing evidence to support your explanation.

2. Reflect on the implications of the misconception that butterflies can sting, considering how it might influence human interactions with butterflies.

3. How might dispelling myths and misconceptions about butterflies contribute to conservation efforts and public awareness of their importance in ecosystems?

4. Can you think of any other misconceptions about butterflies that are not mentioned in the passage? Explain why these misconceptions are inaccurate and provide factual information to correct them.

© ReadingDuck.com