

Name _____

The Butterfly Princess

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. They helped other creatures by offering assistance, solving problems, and sharing their knowledge and kindness.
2. The butterfly princess wanted to befriend someone kind and pure of heart because she believed that only such a person could break the curse and help her regain her true form.
3. The adventure taught Lily that true friends can come in unexpected forms, and it made her value the importance of kindness and genuine connections.
4. Answers may vary, but a possible response could be, "I would have been surprised and excited to meet a real-life princess and would have tried to talk to her and learn more about her."

