CSI In My Backyard

Open Ended Questions Answers

1. Alex's detective attire included oversized sunglasses and a magnifying glass, and he brought a notebook and pencil as tools for his investigation.
2. Alex's investigation led him to the shed because he found a trail of cookie crumbs in the kitchen that led to the backyard, and the shed was where he discovered the squirrels with chocolate chip mustaches when he opened the door.
3. Alex learned that sometimes even simple mysteries can have funny and unexpected solutions. He decided to leave cookies out for the backyard critters to prevent them from sneaking into the kitchen.
4. Answers may vary, but students can describe their own investigative approach to the missing cookies and explain how they would prevent future cookie theft by the squirrels.
