Milo's New Bike

Milo was a boy who loved to ride his bike. One day, Milo got a new bike. It was blue and shiny with a red stripe on the side. Milo was so happy. He could not wait to ride it.

Milo put on his helmet and rode his bike to the park. At the park, he met his friend, Leo. "Nice bike, Milo!" Leo said. Milo smiled and asked Leo if he wanted to ride with him.

Milo and Leo rode their bikes around the park. They rode fast and had a lot of fun. They played games and even had a little race. Milo's new bike was so fast that he won the race!

After riding, they sat on the grass and ate some cake. Milo had brought the cake to share with Leo. It was a sunny day, and they felt very happy.

When the sun began to set, Milo and Leo said goodbye. Milo rode his bike back home, thinking about all the fun they had. He could not wait to ride his bike again the next day.
