

Name _____

Conquering Rome and Beyond: Julius Caesar's Remarkable Memoir

Short Answer Key

1. Julius Caesar famously crossed the Rubicon River in 49 BC.
2. Brutus and Cassius were among the conspirators who assassinated Julius Caesar on the Ides of March.
3. Julius Caesar held the title of "dictator for life" after winning the civil war.
4. The famous phrase associated with Julius Caesar's conquests is "Veni, vidi, vici" which means "I came, I saw, I conquered."
5. Julius Caesar became consul in Roman politics in 59 BC.

