

Name _____

Do Camels Form Relationships with Other Species?

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is mutualism?
 - a) When one animal harms another.
 - b) When only one animal benefits.
 - c) When both species benefit.
 - d) When neither benefits.

2. How do birds benefit from mutualism with camels?
 - a) They get food from insects.
 - b) They get water from camels.
 - c) They use camels as shelter.
 - d) They ride on camels.

3. What is an example of commensalism involving camels?
 - a) Ticks feeding on camels' blood.
 - b) Camels using birds for cleaning.
 - c) Lizards using camel fur for shade.
 - d) Camels eating plants.

4. How does parasitism affect camels?
 - a) It keeps them healthy.
 - b) It harms them by feeding on their blood.
 - c) It provides food for camels.
 - d) It protects them from insects.

5. How do camels and humans interact in a mutualistic relationship?
 - a) Camels eat human food.
 - b) Camels harm humans.
 - c) Humans ride on camels for fun only.
 - d) Camels carry goods and receive care.

