

Name _____

Culture and Traditions in Canada

Short Answer Key

1. The three main Indigenous groups in Canada are First Nations, Inuit, and Métis.
2. Multiculturalism is important because it allows people from different backgrounds to share their traditions while living together in harmony.
3. One example of a cultural festival in Canada is Diwali, Caribana, or Chinese New Year.
4. Canadians help others by volunteering, supporting food banks, and working on community projects.
5. Respect is important in Canada because it helps people live together peacefully and ensures that everyone is treated fairly.

