

Name _____

Culture and Traditions in Canada

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Learning about different cultures is important because it helps people understand and respect each other. It also allows people to experience new traditions, foods, and customs.
2. Canada's multicultural society makes the country special because it welcomes people from all over the world. People can celebrate their own traditions while also being part of Canadian culture.
3. I would visit Caribana because I love music and colorful parades. It would be fun to experience Caribbean culture and dance to the music.
4. Social values like kindness and inclusion make a country stronger because they bring people together. When people respect and help each other, they create a better and happier society.

