Languages and Dialects of Canada

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. It is important to preserve Indigenous languages because they are part of Canada's history and culture. If they disappear, important traditions could be lost.
2. Speaking more than one language helps people communicate with others, find better jobs, and learn about different cultures.
3. Living in a bilingual country means that people can read signs, go to school, and get services in two languages. It also helps people learn new languages more easily.
4. I would like to learn French because it is one of Canada's official languages, and it would help me communicate with more people.
