

Name _____

Delicious Canadian Cuisine

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. I would like to try poutine because I love French fries, and the melted cheese and gravy sound delicious.
2. Bannock has been important to Indigenous people because it is easy to make and can be cooked in different ways. It was a great food for traveling and surviving in the wilderness.
3. Poutine comes from Quebec and shows French influence, while Nanaimo bars come from British Columbia and have British-style custard. This shows how different cultures have shaped Canada's food.
4. Food is an important part of culture because it brings people together and helps tell the story of a country's history and traditions.

