Festivals and Celebrations in Canada

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. I would choose to go to the Calgary Stampede because I love horses and rodeo events. It would be fun to see the cowboys and enjoy the carnival rides!
2. It is important to celebrate Indigenous traditions because they are part of Canada's history and culture. Powwows help people learn about and respect Indigenous communities.
3. Canada Day brings people together by giving them a chance to celebrate their country with fireworks, music, and fun activities. It helps people feel proud to be Canadian.
4. I would enjoy the rodeo events at the Calgary Stampede the most because I have never seen bull riding before, and it looks very exciting!
