

Name _____

Indigenous Peoples and Traditions in Canada

Short Answer Key

1. The three main Indigenous groups in Canada are the First Nations, Métis, and Inuit.
2. Sled dogs and kayaks helped the Inuit travel across ice and water in the Arctic.
3. Louis Riel was a Métis leader who fought to protect Métis rights in the 1800s.
4. Indigenous peoples create art such as totem poles, beadwork, carvings, and paintings.
5. Indigenous peoples celebrate their cultures through powwows, storytelling, music, and festivals.

