

Name _____

The Great Candy Caper

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Sam was dedicated to solving the candy store robbery because they had a passion for candy and a natural curiosity. They couldn't resist the opportunity to solve a mystery involving their favorite treats and help the town.
2. Sam found a jar of candy canes at Mr. Pringle's candy shop that looked identical to the one they had found at the crime scene. This evidence suggested Mr. Pringle's involvement in the theft.
3. The town of Sweetville likely felt grateful and relieved about Sam's detective skills and the recovery of the stolen recipe book. They celebrated Sam's success and appreciated their dedication to solving the mystery.
4. If I were Sam, I might accept Mr. Wilkins' offer of a lifetime supply of Rainbow Rockets as a token of gratitude, but I would also ensure that it doesn't lead to excessive candy consumption.
