

Name _____

The Great Cafeteria Caper

Short Answer Key

1. Tommy and Sarah used a notebook, a magnifying glass, and flyers during their investigation.
2. Principal Jenkins was secretly hoarding chicken nuggets and engineered the infinite nugget phenomenon. He resolved it by agreeing to share his nugget stash with the school.
3. The students reacted to the nugget conspiracy by organizing "Nugget Liberation Day" and demanding an end to the conspiracy. They wanted Principal Jenkins to share the nuggets with the school.
4. Tommy and Sarah distributed flyers with the headline "Principal Jenkins' Nuggetgate Scandal" to expose the truth about the nugget conspiracy to the school and rally the students.
5. The students of Ridgemont Middle School learned that sometimes, the most absurd mysteries can lead to the most delicious solutions, highlighting the humor and satire of the story.

