

Name _____

The Galactic Quest of Captain Luna

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Alex decided to embark on the interstellar adventure to find the Starfire Shard because he had an extraordinary dream of exploring the cosmos and discovering new worlds, and the Shard's legendary power intrigued him.
2. Alex developed qualities such as courage, resilience, and adaptability during his cosmic journey.
3. One unique alien race they might have encountered could be the "Luminothians," beings made entirely of light energy who communicated through intricate patterns of color and shape, each conveying a different emotion or message.
4. By the end of the story, Alex realized that the true power of the Starfire Shard wasn't in manipulating time and space but in the incredible journey he had undertaken and the friendship he had formed with REX-1, his loyal cosmic companion.

