

Name _____

Capturing Creativity

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What does the Haiku suggest is ignited when creative passions arise?
 - a) A camera
 - b) A desire to capture life
 - c) Moments frozen still
 - d) The imagination and inspiration

2. What art form is mentioned in the Haiku as a means to capture life?
 - a) Painting
 - b) Sculpture
 - c) Photography
 - d) Writing

3. According to the Haiku, what happens to moments when captured through photography?
 - a) They are forgotten.
 - b) They come to life.
 - c) They become blurry.
 - d) They are frozen still.

4. What does the word "ignite" in the Haiku mean?
 - a) To extinguish
 - b) To set on fire or spark
 - c) To slow down
 - d) To erase

5. What is the main theme of the Haiku "Capturing Creativity"?
 - a) The art of writing
 - b) The power of imagination
 - c) The beauty of photography
 - d) The essence of stillness

