

Name _____

The Curse of the Midnight Carnival

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. The friends decided to explore the Midnight Carnival out of a sense of adventure and curiosity. They wanted to uncover the truth about the carnival and see if the curse was real.
2. When the friends first entered the Midnight Carnival, it was a shadowy maze of decaying rides and forgotten games. The atmosphere was eerie and filled with a strange energy, and the air was heavy. Ghostly figures danced through a chilling mist, and carnival rides creaked to life.
3. The friends likely felt a mixture of fear, regret, and responsibility when they realized they had unleashed the curse. They were faced with the daunting task of solving the riddles to break the curse and save themselves.
4. The story teaches us that curiosity can lead to unexpected and sometimes dangerous consequences. However, it also highlights the power of friendship and determination in overcoming challenges and righting wrongs.

