

Name _____

Mary Cassatt: A Brush with Impressionist Brilliance

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Where was Mary Cassatt born?

- a) Paris, France
- b) London, England
- c) Allegheny City, Pennsylvania
- d) Rome, Italy

2. Which artistic movement did Mary Cassatt become associated with?

- a) Cubism
- b) Surrealism
- c) Realism
- d) Impressionism

3. In what city did Mary Cassatt receive formal artistic training and encounter the Impressionist movement?

- a) New York City
- b) Philadelphia
- c) Boston
- d) Chicago

4. What is one of Mary Cassatt's famous paintings that portrays the bond between a mother and her child?

- a) Starry Night
- b) The Persistence of Memory
- c) The Child's Bath
- d) The Scream

5. What role did Mary Cassatt play in relation to Impressionist art in the United States?

- a) She was a critic of Impressionism.
- b) She introduced Impressionist art to the U.S. and advocated for its acquisition by American collectors and museums.
- c) She never had any involvement with Impressionist art.
- d) She painted exclusively in the United States.

