

Name _____

A Cast of Characters in 'Of Mice and Men'

Short Answer Key

1. George serves as Lennie's protector and caretaker. Their shared dream is to own a piece of land together and escape their itinerant lifestyle.
2. Curley has a confrontational and aggressive relationship with the other ranch workers, particularly George and Lennie. His jealousy and insecurity often lead to tension and conflict.
3. Curley's wife is characterized by loneliness and a desire for attention and companionship. Her presence disrupts the dynamics on the ranch and serves as a symbol of unfulfilled dreams.
4. Slim plays a crucial role in offering guidance and support to George and Lennie. He also resolves conflicts and serves as a voice of reason among the ranch workers. His character influences the story's themes and the journey of the main characters.
5. Crooks faces racial discrimination and isolation as the only African American worker on the ranch. His challenges are rooted in the racism of the time, and his isolation makes him a complex character.

