

Name _____

Fashion Stars: The Unveiling of Celebrity Judge

Short Answer Key

1. The theme of the Creative Kids Fashion Design Contest was sustainability and recycling, where participants had to create outfits using only recycled materials.
2. Max suggested creating a suit made from discarded soda cans because he wanted to reflect the theme of recycling in his design. The soda cans could be flattened and shaped into unique patterns and textures.
3. The announcement of Stella Starling as the celebrity judge was a big surprise because she was a renowned fashion icon and designer. It affected the contestants by increasing their excitement and anticipation, knowing they would be judged by a fashion superstar.
4. Max's outfit reflected the theme of recycling with soda cans. He used flattened soda cans to create unique patterns and textures on the suit, showcasing the potential of recycling materials in fashion.
5. When the four friends were announced as the winners of the contest, they felt overwhelmed with joy and gratitude. Their hard work and creativity had paid off, and they were proud to have their efforts recognized.

