

Name _____

Mark, the Change-Maker

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Why is Mark described as an activist who fights for positive change in the poem? What does this tell you about his character?
2. Imagine you met Mark. How do you think he rallies the skies and makes change in the world?
3. How might Mark's passion and determination inspire others around him?
4. Why is it important for individuals like Mark to advocate for positive change in the world?

