

Name _____

Changing the World

Short Answer Key

1. The Emancipation Proclamation declared enslaved people in Confederate states free.
2. Britain and France used cotton from the South to make clothing and textiles.
3. It made the war about freedom, so Britain and France did not want to help a country that allowed slavery.
4. They were against slavery, so they supported Lincoln's decision to free enslaved people.
5. It weakened the South by keeping Britain and France from helping them, making it easier for the Union to win.

