

Name _____

Adventures in Austenland: Chapters 1-10 of Pride and Prejudice

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Who is Mr. Bingley and what is the initial purpose of his arrival in the neighborhood?
 - a. Mr. Bingley is a clergyman, and he comes to officiate weddings.
 - b. Mr. Bingley is a wealthy bachelor, and he rents an estate in the area.
 - c. Mr. Bingley is a distant relative of the Bennet family, and he comes for a family reunion.
 - d. Mr. Bingley is a scholar, and he visits the Bennet family to borrow books.

2. What event takes place at Netherfield Park in chapters 4-6, and why is it significant for the Bennet family?
 - a. A picnic is held, and the Bennet family is invited.
 - b. A ball is hosted by Mr. Bingley, and it offers a chance for the Bennet daughters to make an impression.
 - c. A horse race takes place, and Mr. Bennet's favorite horse wins.
 - d. A charity auction is organized, and Mrs. Bennet wins a valuable prize.

3. What unfavorable opinion does Elizabeth form about Mr. Darcy in these early chapters?
 - a. She thinks he is charming and amiable.
 - b. She believes he is a perfect gentleman.
 - c. She finds him proud and arrogant.
 - d. She thinks he is the ideal match for her sister Jane.

4. Who is Mr. Collins, and why does he visit the Bennet family?
 - a. Mr. Collins is a wealthy bachelor interested in marrying one of the Bennet daughters.
 - b. Mr. Collins is a scholar conducting research on the Bennet family's history.
 - c. Mr. Collins is a clergyman and a distant cousin, and he visits to propose marriage.
 - d. Mr. Collins is a physician who comes to treat Jane's illness.

5. Why does Jane stay at Netherfield in chapter 10, and how does Elizabeth react to this situation?
 - a. Jane stays at Netherfield because she wants to be close to Mr. Darcy. Elizabeth is thrilled about it.
 - b. Jane falls ill after getting caught in the rain while visiting the Bingleys. Elizabeth goes to Netherfield to care for her sister, despite her growing attraction to Mr. Darcy.
 - c. Jane stays at Netherfield because she is hired as a governess for the Bingley children. Elizabeth is worried about her sister's safety.
 - d. Jane stays at Netherfield to attend a grand party, and Elizabeth joins her to enjoy the festivities.

