

Name _____

Love and Intrigue: Chapters 21-40 of Pride and Prejudice

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Where does Elizabeth Bennet visit in chapters 21-23, and what is her initial impression of the place?
  - a. She visits Rosings Park, and she finds it enchanting.
  - b. She tours Pemberley, and she is unimpressed.
  - c. She travels to London, and she enjoys the bustling city.
  - d. She explores Netherfield Park, and she is awed by its grandeur.

2. How does Mr. Darcy's character change in his second proposal to Elizabeth in chapters 33-36 compared to his first proposal?
  - a. He becomes more arrogant and critical.
  - b. He remains the same as in the first proposal.
  - c. He is more sincere, heartfelt, and humble.
  - d. He becomes indifferent and distant.

3. What crisis does the Bennet family face in chapters 24-27, and how is it resolved?
  - a. Mr. Collins proposes to Elizabeth, and she accepts.
  - b. Lydia elopes with Mr. Wickham, and Mr. Darcy intervenes to ensure their marriage.
  - c. Mr. Bingley returns to Netherfield, causing tension in Jane and Mr. Bingley's relationship.
  - d. Elizabeth discovers a scandal involving Mr. Darcy.

4. Who proposes to Elizabeth in chapters 28-32, and how does she respond?
  - a. Mr. Darcy proposes, and she accepts.
  - b. Mr. Collins proposes, and she accepts.
  - c. Mr. Bingley proposes, and she accepts.
  - d. Colonel Fitzwilliam proposes, and she declines.

5. What realization does Elizabeth have in chapters 37-40 after reading Mr. Darcy's letter?
  - a. She realizes she is in love with Mr. Collins.
  - b. She recognizes her own prejudices and misunderstandings about Mr. Darcy.
  - c. She decides to elope with Mr. Wickham.
  - d. She believes Mr. Darcy is insincere in his feelings for her.

