

Name _____

Adventures and Challenges: Chapters 7-14 of 'To Kill a Mockingbird'

Short Answer

1. Describe the significance of the fire at Miss Maudie Atkinson's house in Chapter 8 and its impact on the children's perception of Boo Radley.
2. Explain Aunt Alexandra's role in the Finch household and the tension she brings, particularly in relation to Scout.
3. Discuss the lessons Scout and Jem learn from their interactions with Mrs. Dubose in Chapter 11.
4. How does the Lynch mob situation in Chapter 14 reveal the town's racial prejudice, and what role do Scout, Jem, and Dill play in diffusing the situation?
5. In Chapter 13, why is Calpurnia's church visit significant for Scout and Jem, and how does it contribute to their understanding of Maycomb's racial segregation?

