

Name _____

Discovering the Magic of Good Character Traits

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Think about a time when you encountered someone with a remarkable character trait. Describe the situation, the trait you observed, and how it made you feel.
2. Imagine you are in a group project where teamwork is essential. Discuss the importance of teamwork and how it can lead to better results.
3. Reflect on a personal experience where you had to persevere through a challenging situation. How did your perseverance pay off in the end?
4. Discuss how the character trait of integrity can build trust in personal and professional relationships. Provide examples to support your explanation.

