

Name _____

Fun with Fungi: Exploring the Unique Characteristics of Fungi

Multiple Choice Questions

1. How do fungi obtain nutrients?
 - a) Through photosynthesis
 - b) By hunting other organisms
 - c) By absorbing organic matter
 - d) By producing sugars

2. What is the composition of fungi's cell walls?
 - a) Cellulose
 - b) Calcium carbonate
 - c) Protein
 - d) Chitin

3. How do fungi reproduce?
 - a) By giving birth to offspring
 - b) By mating with other fungi
 - c) By laying eggs
 - d) By releasing spores

4. What is a unique characteristic of fungi's relationship with plants?
 - a) They compete for resources
 - b) They exchange nutrients
 - c) They produce oxygen
 - d) They are photosynthetic

5. How do fungi differ from animals in obtaining nutrients?
 - a) Fungi absorb nutrients from their surroundings
 - b) Fungi ingest food and digest it internally
 - c) Fungi produce their own food through photosynthesis
 - d) Fungi hunt and capture prey for food

