

Name _____

How Does a Cheetah Communicate?

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Cheetahs use chirping sounds because they may not need to scare other animals as lions do.
2. Scent marking helps cheetahs avoid fights by showing an area is already taken.
3. Humans can learn about non-verbal communication and how animals work together for survival.
4. Studying cheetah communication helps scientists protect the species by understanding their needs better.

