

Name _____

Colors in the Sky: The Science of Fireworks

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Why do you think scientists carefully choose certain elements for fireworks?
2. What surprised you most about how fireworks work?
3. Describe what happens from the moment a firework is launched to when it explodes in color.
4. How could learning about fireworks help you understand other types of science?

