

Name _____

Colors in the Sky: The Science of Fireworks

Short Answer Key

1. Powder and “stars” filled with chemical elements
2. Each element releases light in a different color when it gets hot
3. They get excited and then release energy as colored light
4. Copper makes blue; barium makes green
5. Because they are fun to watch and part of celebrations

