

Name _____

Fuel on Fire: How Cars Use Chemical Changes to Move

Short Answer Key

1. They produce energy, heat, carbon dioxide, and water vapor.
2. In the combustion chamber.
3. Hot gases push the pistons.
4. Because it turns into different substances that can't be turned back into gasoline.
5. Carbon dioxide.