

Name _____

Where Do Chimpanzees Live?

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Trees provide food and a safe place to live.
2. It could reduce their food supply and force them into smaller areas, making survival harder.
3. Answers may vary, but could include creating protected areas and educating people about conservation.
4. The trees provide food, and the height keeps them safe from many predators.

