

Name _____

Chimpanzees: Guardians of the Forest

Multiple Choice Questions

1. How do chimpanzees help plants grow?
 - a. By planting seeds with their hands
 - b. By cutting down trees
 - c. By watering plants
 - d. By spreading seeds through their waste

2. What insects do chimpanzees eat to control their population?
 - a. Bees and butterflies
 - b. Termites and ants
 - c. Mosquitoes and flies
 - d. Grasshoppers and crickets

3. Why is seed dispersal important for forests?
 - a. It helps plants grow in new areas
 - b. It keeps the trees tall
 - c. It makes the forest darker
 - d. It stops plants from growing

4. Which animal might prey on chimpanzees?
 - a. Leopards
 - b. Rabbits
 - c. Elephants
 - d. Deer

5. How do chimpanzees help soil stay healthy?
 - a. By building nests
 - b. By cleaning the forest floor
 - c. By leaving waste that enriches the soil
 - d. By digging holes

