

Name _____

Choosing Futures

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Answers will vary. Some may say it is fair because it prevents bad decisions, while others may say it is unfair because people should have control over their own futures.
2. Answers will vary. Some may feel ready because they have interests, while others may say twelve is too young to decide a career.
3. Answers will vary. Some may say that people would be happier with their jobs, while others may say it could create conflict and uncertainty.
4. Answers will vary. Some may say too many choices can be overwhelming, while others may believe that choices help people grow and learn.

