Choosing the President

Short Answer Key

1. The Founding Fathers created the Electoral College to balance power and prevent unfair elections.
2. Some worried that people would vote for candidates only from their own state.
3. The Electoral College gives small states extra electors so they have influence in elections.
4. Some leaders thought Congress had more knowledge to choose the best president.
5. Some people believe the Electoral College does not always reflect what most voters want.
