

Name _____

The Courthouse Chronicles

Short Answer Key

1. Sarah and her friends play a central role in organizing a protest and taking legal action to stop the courthouse's demolition. They are motivated by a strong sense of justice and their love for their town's history.
2. The courthouse is not only a historical landmark but also a symbol of justice in the town. It represents the community's commitment to upholding the law and preserving its heritage.
3. Sarah and her friends face opposition from Mayor Thompson and uncover a web of corruption. They overcome these challenges through determination, grassroots activism, and taking legal action.
4. The story showcases how a group of young individuals can rally their community and make a significant impact by working together to protect their town's history and heritage.

