

Name _____

Circle of Life

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

(Answers may vary, but here are possible responses.)

1. Charlotte's Web teaches that while death is sad, it is part of life, and love continues through memories and new beginnings.
2. Charlotte sacrificed herself because she believed true friendship means helping others, even when it is difficult.
3. Friendships help people feel supported, comforted, and less alone during hard times.
4. If I were Wilbur, I would always tell stories about Charlotte and help others, just as she helped me.

