

Name _____

Exploring the Vibrant Cities of Brazil

Short Answer Key

1. The iconic statue overlooking Rio de Janeiro is the Christ the Redeemer statue, and it is located atop the Corcovado mountain.
2. Curitiba is often referred to as "The Green City" due to its sustainable urban planning, extensive parks, and focus on public transportation.
3. Recife is known as the "Venice of Brazil" because of its beautiful canals and waterways.
4. Salvador has a rich cultural significance due to its Afro-Brazilian heritage, including practices like Capoeira, Candomblé, and traditional Bahian cuisine.
5. The Teatro Amazonas in Manaus is known for its stunning architecture, featuring a dome covered in 36,000 decorated ceramic tiles.

