

Name _____

Exploring India's Vibrant Cities

Short Answer Key

1. The nickname "Pink City" refers to Jaipur's distinctive pink-colored buildings, which were painted pink to welcome the Prince of Wales in 1876. It has since become a symbol of the city's identity.
2. Chandigarh is known as a planned city because it was designed by the renowned Swiss-French architect Le Corbusier. It was meticulously planned with a modern layout and architecture, featuring organized sectors, wide roads, and green spaces.
3. Chennai is known as the "Gateway to the South" due to its location on the southern coast of India. Its primary attractions include Marina Beach, historical sites like Fort St. George, and its role as a cultural center for classical music and dance.
4. Kolkata has a rich cultural significance and is associated with the famous poet and Nobel laureate Rabindranath Tagore. It is known for its literary heritage, cultural festivals, and artistic contributions.
5. Mumbai is famous for being the heart of the Indian film industry, Bollywood. It is home to numerous film studios, production houses, and iconic landmarks related to the film industry.

