

Name _____

Exploring the World of City Planners

Short Answer

1. Explain why communication skills are crucial for city planners when working on projects.
2. Describe one specific task that city planners perform during the project implementation phase.
3. How does a city planner consider environmental sustainability in their work?
4. Provide an example of a project that a city planner might work on to improve a neighborhood.
5. Why is research an important part of a city planner's job, and what kind of information do they research?

