

Name _____

City Puzzle: How Urban Planning Shapes Our Cities

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is urban planning primarily concerned with?
 - a) Designing and organizing cities for functionality and attractiveness
 - b) Creating art and sculptures in public spaces
 - c) Building tall skyscrapers in city centers
 - d) Reducing the number of green spaces in cities

2. What does urban planning involve in terms of city layout and design?
 - a) Focusing solely on residential areas
 - b) Deciding where roads should be built
 - c) Ignoring environmental impact
 - d) Selecting the best colors for buildings

3. What is the role of urban planners in transportation systems?
 - a) Ignoring traffic flow and accessibility
 - b) Promoting energy-efficient buildings
 - c) Designing efficient transportation networks
 - d) Reducing the number of bike lanes

4. How do green spaces and parks contribute to urban planning?
 - a) They have no role in urban planning.
 - b) They provide places for relaxation and exercise.
 - c) They contribute to traffic congestion.
 - d) They are mainly used for industrial purposes.

5. What is a key focus of modern urban planning in terms of sustainability?
 - a) Promoting pollution and waste
 - b) Reducing the use of energy-efficient technologies
 - c) Reducing the environmental impact of cities
 - d) Encouraging excessive consumption of natural resources

