Barnyard Dance Party

On the funny farm, the animals decided to have a talent show. First up was a chicken named Clara who tried to sing, but her clucking was so loud that it made all the pigs dance! Next, a cow named Daisy attempted to tell jokes, but the laughter from the animals sounded like thunder.

Finally, a sheep named Sam showed off his tap-dancing skills, and the barn rocked with laughter. The talent show turned into a barnyard dance party, and they all had a blast!
