

Name _____

Literary Escapade: A Time-Traveling Odyssey Through Classic Tales

Short Answer Key

1. Emily ended up in 19th-century London because she found a mysterious book in a dusty old bookstore. She was there because she was transported into the world of classic literature.
2. Some challenges included outsmarting pirates, navigating the Mississippi River, and solving riddles posed by the Cheshire Cat.
3. Emily used the power of the mysterious book to transport Dracula and his villains back into the pages of their respective stories.
4. The prophecies foretold the arrival of a "time traveler" with the power to unlock the potential of classic literature, helping Emily and her friends understand their mission and abilities.
5. Emily became an author, drawing inspiration from her adventures to write stories. She also appreciated literature even more, having forged lifelong bonds with the characters she met.

