

Name _____

Diving into Waterborne Diseases: Risks in Regions with Limited Clean Water Access

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is one major waterborne disease caused by a bacterial infection?
  - a) Giardiasis
  - b) Typhoid Fever
  - c) Hepatitis A
  - d) Malaria

2. Which of the following diseases is often spread through contaminated water and food?
  - a) Cholera
  - b) Tuberculosis
  - c) Diabetes
  - d) Asthma

3. What makes children and vulnerable populations particularly susceptible to waterborne diseases?
  - a) They have stronger immune systems
  - b) They have better access to clean water
  - c) Their immune systems are not fully developed
  - d) They are less likely to consume contaminated water

4. How can waterborne diseases be prevented in affected regions?
  - a) By improving access to clean water and sanitation
  - b) By promoting unhealthy hygiene practices
  - c) By reducing access to healthcare facilities
  - d) By ignoring the issue

5. What role do water purification methods like chlorination play in preventing waterborne diseases?
  - a) They increase the risk of disease transmission
  - b) They have no impact on water quality
  - c) They reduce the risk of waterborne diseases
  - d) They cause water contamination

