

Name _____

Cleanup Lesson

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What does the Cat do at the end of the story?
 - a) He apologizes to the siblings and leaves the mess.
 - b) He calls the siblings' mother to explain what happened.
 - c) He hides the mess under the furniture.
 - d) He uses a machine to clean up the mess.

2. Why do the siblings start to worry as the story goes on?
 - a) They know their mother will come home soon and see the mess.
 - b) They think the Cat will leave without helping them.
 - c) They are afraid the Fish will get in trouble.
 - d) They are worried about running out of time to play.

3. What role does the Fish play in the story?
 - a) He encourages the siblings to join the Cat's fun.
 - b) He warns the siblings about the consequences of the mess.
 - c) He helps Thing 1 and Thing 2 make a bigger mess.
 - d) He tells the siblings to ignore their mother's rules.

4. What lesson does the story teach about responsibility?
 - a) Mistakes can't be fixed once they are made.
 - b) It's okay to leave a mess as long as you had fun.
 - c) Taking responsibility means cleaning up after mistakes.
 - d) Responsibility means avoiding fun entirely.

5. Why does the resolution of the story feel hopeful?
 - a) The Cat leaves without fixing the mess.
 - b) The Fish cleans the house for the siblings.
 - c) The house is cleaned, and the siblings learn about responsibility.
 - d) The siblings decide not to tell their mother about what happened.

