

Name _____

Clever Lies

Short Answer Key

1. Huck lies to keep himself and Jim safe while traveling down the river.
2. The King and the Duke pretend to be people they are not in order to steal money.
3. Jim's deception is used to help Tom, while the King and the Duke use lies to cheat others.
4. Huck learns that not all rules are fair and that sometimes doing the right thing means bending the truth.
5. Twain shows that lies can be used for good or bad, depending on the intentions behind them.

