

Name _____

Navigating the World of Clinical Research Coordination

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the primary role of a Clinical Research Coordinator?
 - a) Performing surgeries
 - b) Ensuring clinical trials run smoothly
 - c) Managing a hospital's finances
 - d) Writing research papers

2. What type of education is typically required to become a Clinical Research Coordinator?
 - a) A high school diploma
 - b) A Ph.D. in any field
 - c) At least a bachelor's degree in a health-related field
 - d) A degree in art history

3. Why is attention to detail crucial for Clinical Research Coordinators?
 - a) To make the workday more enjoyable
 - b) To impress their colleagues
 - c) For precise data collection and record-keeping
 - d) To win awards

4. What is one of the key responsibilities of a Clinical Research Coordinator during participant visits?
 - a) Providing medical treatment
 - b) Collecting data and explaining procedures
 - c) Planning vacations for participants
 - d) Offering financial advice

5. Why is ethical awareness an important skill for Clinical Research Coordinators?
 - a) To write poetry
 - b) To ensure that research follows ethical guidelines and protects participants' rights
 - c) To negotiate contracts
 - d) To become famous

