

Name _____

How Do Clownfish Talk to Each Other?

Multiple Choice Questions

1. How do clownfish communicate with each other?
 - a) By sending electric signals
 - b) By making sounds, movements, and showing social behavior
 - c) By glowing in the dark
 - d) By using colors that change

2. What type of sounds do clownfish make?
 - a) Clicking and popping noises
 - b) Whistles and chirps
 - c) Growls and roars
 - d) Humming sounds

3. What does a clownfish do if it feels threatened?
 - a) Hides in the sand
 - b) Changes color
 - c) Darts toward the predator
 - d) Leaves the sea anemone

4. What is the role of the largest clownfish in the group?
 - a) It is the leader and the female.
 - b) It is the group's protector and a male.
 - c) It is responsible for cleaning the anemone.
 - d) It finds food for the group.

5. How do clownfish communicate with their sea anemone?
 - a) By making clicking sounds
 - b) By glowing in the dark
 - c) By changing their swimming speed
 - d) By brushing their bodies against the tentacles

