

Name _____

Clownfish in Danger: Predators and Threats

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Which animals are common predators of clownfish?
 - a) Sea turtles, sharks, and groupers
 - b) Snakes, octopuses, and dolphins
 - c) Dolphins, jellyfish, and sea turtles
 - d) Groupers, snappers, and sharks

2. How do rising water temperatures affect clownfish?
 - a) They make clownfish faster swimmers.
 - b) They cause coral reefs to get damaged, affecting clownfish homes.
 - c) They help clownfish grow larger.
 - d) They make clownfish safer from predators.

3. How do clownfish clean themselves?
 - a) By brushing against coral
 - b) By eating special plants
 - c) By rubbing against sea anemones
 - d) By swimming very fast

4. What is one way humans are a threat to clownfish?
 - a) Feeding clownfish too much food
 - b) Polluting freshwater rivers
 - c) Taking their sea anemones for decoration
 - d) Catching them for aquariums

5. Why are parasites dangerous to clownfish?
 - a) They weaken the clownfish over time.
 - b) They make clownfish lose their colors.
 - c) They make clownfish swim faster.
 - d) They protect clownfish from predators.

